Vanderbilt Kennedy Reading Clinic
A clinic providing one-on-one instruction for struggling readers

Who the Clinic serves:
Students in grades K – 8 who are behind in reading.

How the Clinic can help:
The Reading Clinic provides individualized, one-on-one tutoring using assessments and evidence-based instructional methods shown to promote reading.

“My child was consistently testing well below grade level in respect to comprehension. After several sessions at the Reading Clinic, my child’s test scores are now much closer to grade level. He is no longer embarrassed to read out loud in class or in front of other people.”

Features of the program:
• During the Fall & Spring semesters, tutoring sessions are 40-minutes in duration, 2 times per week.
• Please contact the Reading Clinic for information about our summer programs.
• Non-diagnostic entry assessments determine individual needs.
• Goals are established for the tutoring period.
• Progress is measured regularly, and instruction is adjusted accordingly.
• Parents will receive regular updates on their child’s progress in tutoring.
• Tutoring is provided by qualified teachers from the community or undergraduate and graduate students supervised by faculty.
