The Wallace Lab is now recruiting children (ages 8-17) with autism spectrum disorders (ASD) and typically developing children to participate in computer based multisensory research.

Research is flexible and would include 2-7 two hour sessions that include:
- Reading and vocabulary comprehension tests
- Flash–beep tasks similar to computer games
- EEG and fMRI if interested

Gift Card Compensation is provided.

Date of Approval: 6/3/2015

For more information email or call: wallacelab@gmail.com
615-936-7108