Healthy children needed for MRI study

We are interested in how a child’s temperament may relate to differences in brain function.

Who
Healthy children, 8-10 years of age

What
Three visits to Vanderbilt

Your child will:
• answer questions about temperament, feelings, and behaviors
• give several small saliva samples
• complete a brain MRI scan

You and your child will be compensated for your time.

Contact
Study conducted by
Dr. Jennifer Blackford, Ph.D. at Vanderbilt University Medical Center.

Contact
Jacci.Clauss@vanderbilt.edu

Date of Approval: 9/12/2013