My family and I are going to Families First at Vanderbilt today. I will know we have arrived when I see the yellow signs that say, “Families First Event.”
When we get there, we may pull up at the front to get out or we may park the car and walk together to the Vanderbilt Kennedy Center.
When we go inside, we will see people from Vanderbilt standing at tables. They will say, “Hi” to me and my family. There might be other families there too, so we might need to wait. I will try to wait quietly for my turn.
An adult will write my name on stickers and will put them on the back of my shirt and my bag. I will try to leave them there so people can see my name.
We will go down the hall to the elevator. It will take us to the first floor to play. We will go inside and push the button that says, “1.”
When we get off the elevator, we will meet the helpers who will take care of me that morning. My family will say “bye.” My family will go upstairs while I play downstairs with my new friends!
We will go down the hall to see where we will play. The helpers will show us a schedule that tells us what activities we will do.
There are a lot of activities for us to do! I might play on the playground or in the gym, play with toys and games, do an art project, or eat a snack. I will have lots of things to choose from!
There are some rules we need to follow at Families First, like taking turns and staying with my friends. I will try to listen to what the helpers tell me and follow the rules. If I don’t know what to do or need help, I can ask a helper. The helpers and my family will be so happy when I follow the rules!
When Families First is over, my family will come back to get me. I will say “bye” to my new friends and the helpers and get my things. We will take the elevator to the 2nd floor and leave. I might have fun at Families First!
