A Story Board for NASHVILLE OPERA ON TOUR!
Jack & the Beanstalk
VANDERBILT KENNEDY CENTER
TREATMENT & RESEARCH INSTITUTE FOR AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDERS
Let’s meet Jack in the Magical Garden. He is a very brave boy who knows a magic trick to make stones grow in the garden.
Jack and his mother live in a small cottage. They don't have any food to eat. Jack's mother sends him to town to sell their cow so they could have money for food.
While walking to town, Jack met a man on the side of the road. He sold the cow to the man for 5 magic beans.
Jack’s mother was upset Jack bought beans instead of food, but Jack planted the beans in the yard. At night, Jack and his mother heard loud sounds. In the morning, they found a giant beanstalk in the yard.
Jack climbed the beanstalk. He found a giant and his wife living at the top. The giant is mean and likes to break rules.
The giant’s wife gives Jack some bread for he and his mother to eat. Jack tries to hide from the giant but he can still smell him.
Jack is brave and takes the hen that lays golden eggs from the giant since the giant stole it from Jack’s dad a long time ago.
Jack and the giant’s wife climb down the beanstalk and the giant chases them. Jack chops down the beanstalk, and the giant falls.
The giant realizes that he had been a bully and promises to treat others the way he would like to be treated.
“You must treat other people the way you want other people to treat you.”
Upcoming Inclusive Events

March 7, 2015 at 2:00PM
Jack’s Tale Sensory Friendly Performance
Nashville Children’s Theatre

April 1, 2015 at 10:30AM
Learning about Neurodiversity
Nashville Public Library

April 6, 2015 at 6:30PM
Learning about Neurodiversity
Nashville Public Library

April 25, 2015
Affinity Day
FRIST Center for the Visual Arts

April 26, 2015 at 12:00 - 4:00 PM
Autism Awareness Day
Nashville Zoo at Grassmere

Resources Directory
http://vkc.mc.vanderbilt.edu/vkc/triad/ceiresources/
TRIADOOutreach@vanderbilt.edu