

Code of Conduct for ACM Lifting Lives Music Campers

Camp is a great week, and we want to make sure that everyone has a good time! Here are some rules you will need to follow while at camp:

Dorm rules:

- Ask to enter before going into someone else's room.
- Be quiet while people are sleeping- voice and music volume down.
- Shower every day at your scheduled time.
- Awake by 7:00 am
- Dressed and finished with breakfast by 8:30 am
- Stay in your own room from 9:00 pm to 7:00 am (except to use bathroom)
- Only counselors open the main dorm door for people without nametags

Behavior:

- Work together with others to solve problems
- Be flexible and go with the flow
- Respect camp directors, camp staff, and other campers
- Follow directions

Technology:

- You will not have internet access during the week of camp
- Cell phones must stay in the dorms. Bring a separate camera (if you want)
- Pictures of staff and other campers only, not special guests.
- No laptops
- Counselors will lock up your video game devices. You can have them during rest periods.

Interaction with Special Guests:

- Do not ask for individual photos or autographs.
- Do not bring special items to have autographed
- Do not bring personal items (such as books, written songs) to give to guests

Consequences of breaking these rules:

- First time: private talk with Head of Research or Camp Director.
- Second time: phone call home
- Third time: talk about whether or not you should finish the week at camp

After camp:

- You may contact Head of Research or Camp Director with questions
- Counselors and campers cannot share email addresses or phone numbers
- Counselors and campers cannot be Facebook friends
