Tennessee Kindred Stories of Disability is:

- An online collection of stories by and about individuals with disabilities and family members; searchable by disability, age, county, topic, and storyteller perspective.
- An annual print booklet of family stories for legislators.
- A service-learning project for students at Vanderbilt and Belmont Universities.

For more information, contact:
Courtney Taylor, (615) 322-5658
courtney.taylor@vanderbilt.edu

Ways to share:

- Agree to be interviewed and have your story written by a student.
- Write your own story and submit it to the Kindred Stories Website, or contact Courtney Taylor for alternate submission options.
- For agencies interested in partnering in this statewide advocacy effort, contact Courtney Taylor.